Hands Down Her Name to the Present Generation as a Blessing and Comfort,

We have been so very busy the last few How very anxious Houk must be for a standing army, now that his lying one has been utterly put to saturday night has arrived, and a week of Saturday night has arrived, and a week of prosperity is behind us, we can more accurately estimate our prospects, from what with us. This was a happy thought, and commended itself for various reasons, principally, however, because there are so many married people of moderate means, who, when they first started out in life tog-ther. But life is a stern reality, the path is not strewn all along with flowers; in fact, the flowers become so scarce in course of the journey, that one is led to believe that either the florist has gone into the matrimonial business, or else the climate is too which had been saved for a rainy day, has been spent, and now the week's salary has to be carefully considered. In fac, the old home is not what it used to be by a large majority.

In this case, the Martha Washington niversary of a day which was probably the happiest of a lifetime.

Instead of the husband starting for his place of business, with the remark. "Jennie, we have been married six years to day Seems an age! Wonder how we will be fixed next year?" Instead of these exclamations, if he has a
